

Deck of 52

Years ago, there was an enormously popular “52 Deck” series, which offered whimsically illustrated adventures and activities – 52 Alternatives to TV, 52 Cheap Dates, 52 Relaxing Rituals, 52 Things to do in a Museum, 52 Great Books, 52 Romantic Movies, 52 Adventures in Chicago. Create your own concept for a deck. Come up with a working list of what will be on each card. You can even divide the deck into four suits like playing cards.

*You must come up with two deck/topics if you choose to complete this chapter.
