

Flashbacks

If you could relive one day or experience in your life, what would it be? Imagine you get to choose two. Choose one day you want to relive because it was so wonderful, you want to experience it again. Then, choose another day you want to change in some way. Be sure to explain the day, tell what you would change and why. For each day, tell what reliving it would accomplish.