

Map of Life

What places in this country – and perhaps the world – have a personal connection to you? Where have you lived? Where have you traveled? Where do you have relatives living?

Use the maps that follow to mark important places in your world. Include a key that is descriptive and uses different colors, perhaps similar to the key in the example. You will probably want to include the following places on your map:

- place of birth, with date
- places you have lived and dates you lived there
- states and countries you have visited (include approximate dates you were there)
- places where brothers, sisters, grandparents, aunts, uncles, stepbrothers and sisters or close friends live
- other significant places – perhaps areas from which your ancestors emigrated
